

For the Children

The Children's Museum of Phoenix received a total of $11,100 from the Target Corporation and the Arizona Commission on the Arts to fund their Museum without Walls Traveling Exhibits Program. Currently, the program has eight hands-on learning experiences that visit schools and community events around the Valley. "These grants give us the ability to bring our museum out to diverse members of the community and help us raise awareness for the children's museum," said Kate Wells, director of development and marketing.
