

PHOENIX SISTER CITIES
WorldFEST
 presented by Pro's Ranch Markets

Friday, March 23rd 5pm to 9pm
Saturday, March 24th 10am to 9pm

This March 23rd, you will witness one of the biggest events Phoenix Sister Cities has ever offered, WorldFEST 2007. Building from last year's success, Phoenix Sister Cities and the WorldFEST committee have been working hard for the better part of this year making sure to bring back the fun, cultural activities that made WorldFEST such a resounding family-oriented success.

The Sister City Village will be back, providing fun for the whole family. While open to all ages, children under 12 can register for the Sister City Village passport, visit our sister cities booths, and get their picture taken. That's not all, Phoenix's Children Museum will be present activities including creating a "Community Beaded Curtain."

Live musical entertainment, cultural acts presenting dance, song, and other demonstrations are planned for our two stages. And what would be a festival without food? Pro's Ranch Market and Honey Bears barbeque are confirmed vendors, also some new food vendors not available last year. The World Bazaar is making a return for everyone to shop for new wares and widgets.

For our adult WorldFEST goes, World of Beers is making a strong return: Tiger, Singha, Sapporo, Kronenbourg, Guinness Stout, Czechvar, Macau, Moretti Birra and Unibroue Maudite... these are just a few of the unique beers from Phoenix's sister cities. Along with these distinctive bottled beers, we'll also have almost a dozen beers on tap including Spaten, Kronenbourg, Newcastle, Fuller's, Paulaner, Bass, Harp and a variety of great micro-brews.

Finally, if you are not only looking into attending and having fun, but want to contribute some of your time as well in forging this successful event, go to: www.phoenixsistercities.org, click on the WorldFEST link in the left column, and fill out the volunteer registration form. As a volunteer you will receive a t-shirt, meal, and drink ticket for your hard work and participation.

This is the event to attend this spring so don't miss out!
